SCHOOL-FUN

Class History

On September 4, 1948, eighteen Freshmen registered in Searsboro High School. They were Shirley Arthur, Donna Baker, Norma Baker, Wanda Baker, Don Beaderstadt, Leona Evans, Bob Gause, Dorothy Ladely, Shirley Lowry, Anna Belle Massengale, Gene Meredith, Ed Moore, Duane Phillips, Gayle Newport, Celia Van Kooten, Paul See, Wanda Sarver, Rowena Smith, and Roger Watson.

At the end of the Freshman year, Celia Van Kooten, Dorothy Ladely, and Paul See dropped out. In our Sophomore year we gained Jerry Tish. This same group continued through the Junior year together. When we came back for our Senior year, Shirley Arthur was missing from our ranks and in November we lost Norma Baker. At the first of the year we gained Bessie Schmidt who was once our classmate in the grades.

Our Senior year finds eight of us who started out in the first grade still together. They are Wanda Baker, Donna Baker, Bob Gause, Gene Meredith, Shirley Lowry, Gayle Newport, Rowena Smith, and Roger Watson.

"Class Will"

We the class of 1952, Searsboro High School, of the county of Poweskiek, and of the state of Iowa, being of sound mind and body after four strenuous years do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills, bequests, and devices of whatever nature or form heretofore made by us.

Bob Gause wills his heighth to Gordon Lewis. Better start growing, Gordon!

Wanda Sarver wills her basketball ability to Shirley Eicher.

To Dick Mitchell, Bessie Schmidt wills her ability to sleep in study hall.

Gayle Newport wills her cheerleading ability to Hazel Mitchell. Practice makes perfect, Hazel.

Duane Phillips wills his determination to stay away from girls to Benny Fisk. Better change your ways, Benny.

Anna Belle Massengale wills her ability to get on the first team to Grace Figland. Too bad, Grace!

Donna Baker wills to Rowena Nagel, her ability to get along with boys!

To Carol King, Don Beaderstadt wills his regular attendance.

Leona Evans wills her ability to go steady with one boy to Donna Meredith. Better choose between them, Donna!

Shirley Lowry wills her ability to foul in basketball games to Marlene Watson. Does she really need it?

Ed Moore wills his careful driving to Dick Mitchell and Richard Watson. It'd be safer to stay home, boys.

To Benny Fisk, Jerry Tish wills his basketball ability. Poor Benny.

Rowena Smith wills her constant wearing of bluejeans to Marlene Watson.

Roger Watson wills his ability to shoot long shots to Ray Tice. As if he needed it.

To Edna Moore, Wanda Baker wills her ability to go steady. Better settle down, Edna.

Gene Meredith wills his elbows in playing basketball to Dick Mitchell. As if he needed it.

Wanda Baker wills her typing ability back to Mrs. Nelson to give to some poor needy Junior.

Leona, Smitty, Donna, and Anna Belle will their jobs in the kitchen to anyone who will take them.

Gayle and Leona will their "cute" new cheerleading outfits to next year's cheerleaders.

Gayle Newport wills her shyness to Carol King. As if she needed it.

Wanda Baker, Shirley Lowry, Anna Belle Massengale, Wanda Sarver, and Rowena Smith will their basketball suits to "next year's team"

The whole Senior class leave their clean halls and rest rooms to the poor janitor.

To Mrs. Nelson, we leave our neat typing exercises and typing room.

Class Prophecy

Time: An Ordinary day in 1962

As I have received a telephone call from New York to come and be a judge for the beauty contest, I must be making ready for my plane trip.

As I stood waiting to go aboard the plane I saw the pilot and co-pilot come up there, who should the pilot be but Don Beaderstadt from old Searsboro High Class of '52.

Arriving at my destination in New York to judge this beauty contest who was to be one of the other judges but Bob Gause. He says that he really enjoys his work.

After this contest I was to stay in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel over-night. I bought a newspaper and went on up to my room. Reading the paper I saw a Lovelorn column and read it. She was giving advice for girls to be true to their boyfriends. This was written by a Miss Newport. I wondered if this could be Gayle Newport from Searsboro. After some investigation I found that it was.

Later that evening I turned on the television set to find a comedian show on. They were two girls. I thought I recognized them, but then they were announced. They were Mrs. Arendt and Mrs. Beaderstadt, the former Miss Smith and Miss Evans from the Searsboro Class of '52.

Next on television was the wrestling matches of Saturday night. This was a woman's match. Wanda Garwood vs Nell Stewart. It was a real thrill. Then something popped into my head. I thought it could be Wanda Baker from Searsboro High School. Yes, it was. I finally recognized. Some little fighter she is.

The next evening I decided I would go to the Metropolitan Opera. The star of the evening was Donna Baker. What a surprise it was to see her. Some change since high school days.

I leave in the morning to go to California to see one of these entertainers who were entertaining at this army base. After a good night's sleep I was ready to go. When the bell hop came for my suitcases I saw it was one of the classmates from Searsboro, Jerry Tish. He was very friendly and was very glad to see me.

My plane trip out there was very pleasant. When the stewardess came to serve my meal, I thought she looked very familiar and she recognized me too. It was Bessie Schmidt. No wonder people like to travel by plane.

Arriving at the army base I saw this entertainer -- such a sweet looking woman, and guess who it was -- Wanda Sarver, or at least I thought so until I talked to her and found out it was now Mrs. John Callahan. Sgt. John Callahan was stationed here at Camp Roberts.

On my way back to the hotel I saw a sign: V. C. Roger Watson. I stopped to see if it is the Roger Watson who graduated in '52, and sure enough it was. We talked in his study with his wife, five sons, and himself. To our surprise his wife was Shirley Lowry, also of the Class of '52.

Prophecy:

On my way home I saw a sign advertising a rodeo. Since I had never seen a real rodeo. I decided to stop over and see it. During the act of Bronc Busting the name Ed Moore came over the loud speaker announcing him as the favored rider. He was named champion bronc buster and got to crown the rodeo queen who is picked for her ability to ride. The face of the girl looked familiar so I decided to go closer. It was Anna Belle Massengale. I then recognized the bronc buster who was also a '52 graduate of the Dear Old Searsboro High School. After the rodeo Ed told us Duane Phillips another graduate of Class of '52, was a owner of the famous Phillips English Setter Kennels.

As I came through Phoenix I looked out the window to see, to my surprise a flag pole sitter. He was to sit there for 3 months. As I passed on by I saw the name of the sitter on a sign. Gene "Butch the Sitter" Meredith. I communicated with him by short wave radio and found he was to set there to earn one million dollars.

On this trip we found out some of these queer Class of '52 really do strange things. We must go on back home for a rest after a very tiring and STRENUOUS trip.
